THE FROST KING.

BY J. H. ELLIOT.

A spectre strode across the land last night
Whose brow grew dark beneath the stars' pale light.

At length, close muffled in a cowl, he stood
In the dark outskirts of a hillside wood.

His eyes were glassy, but their glance was bold;
His breath was chill—his shriveled fingers cold.

He stretched his icy hands abroad; alas!
The light dew froze to chrystal on the grass.

The fair green leaves began to crisp and curl
With all the radiant tinting of a pearl,

And rustling mournful requiems in the wind,
In death, like lovers fond, together twined.

The few surviving flowers grew wan and pale,
Their dying odors fed the pitiless gale.

And showers of quivering petals in the gloom
Of a near churchyard, drifted round a tomb.

The graceful ferns drooped lower than before,
Like broken hearts that rise to hope no more.

The prickly chesnut burs dropped slowly down,
And ghastly grinned with teeth of polished brown.

Hill, forest, field and vale grew sere and dry,
With sad, dumb silence, as if wondering why.

All Nature's fair gifts 'neath a monarch will Died, as they murmured softly—"Peace, be still!"

The watchful stars paled at the approach of dawn,
And, smiling at the change since yester-morn,

The spectre stooped and wrote upon the clay,
Beauty's death-warrant, the one word—"Decay!"

Summer affrighted, fled before his sight;
Behold the Frost King—spectre of the night!

TRUE AS PREACHING.

If men and women were willing to live within their incomes, disposed to begin life at the bottom the ladder, obey the primary impulses of their nature, and enter upon the cares, trials, and pleasures of the domestic circle, bind their hearts and wind their hopes around the family altar, they would be greatly the gainers. But here comes the difficulty—they must live when they begin, just as others are living, or in better style perhaps, who for thirty or forty years have been carefully and economically journeying along, until they found they could afford to show off a little. It would be well if our modern fair ones were more willing to do as Eve did, when, with a new creation smiling around her, she and her husband began their housekeeping. We don't believe she thought the house would look too common without a velvet tapestry on her parlor or sitting room floors, nor do we believe she had a chambermaid to nurse and run after little Cain and Abel. There is little doubt in our mind, she made Adam's trowsers and hemmed his handkerchiefs, fixed up his Sunday coat, and kept things, generally, nice and tidy in the house. While she was doing this, Adam was probably feeding his flock, or working in the garden, tending his tomato patch, and attending to out-door things generally. Thus they got along "right smartly" and economically, because quite rich and aristocratic, had many children, lived to a good old age, and died among friends. This after all is the true way for both male and female. Begin upon a small scale and gradually rise from that point. Never begin at the top and come down.—Augusta Press.

A HAPPY WOMAN.—A happy woman!—Is she not the very sparkle and sun-shine of life? A woman who is happy because she can't help it—whose smile even the coldest sprinkle of misfortune cannot dampen. Men make a terrible mistake when they marry for beauty, for talent, or for style, the sweetest wives are those who possess the magic secret of being contented under any circumstances. Rich or poor, high or low, it makes no difference, the bright little fountain of joy bubbles up just as musically in their hearts.—William Oland Borne.

A MARVELLOUS STORY.—The Montana Post says that an exploring party, which has been to the headwaters of the Yellow-stone river, has just returned, and reports seeing one of the greatest wonders of the world. For eight days the party traveled through a volcanic country, emitting blue flame and a living stream of molten brimstone. The country was smooth and rolling, long, level plains intervening between rolling mounds. On the summits of these mounds were craters, from four to eight feet in diameter, and everywhere on the level plains were smaller craters, from four to six inches in diameter, from which streamed a blaze and a constant whistling sound. The hollow ground resounded beneath their feet as they traveled, and every moment seemed to break through. Not a living thing was seen in the vicinity. The explorers gave it the significant appellation of hell.

A CUTE lawyer, pleading for a burglar, against whom the case was clear, contended that as his client had been caught before half his body was introduced into the house where the burglary was attempted, a case could not be made out against him, he asked the following question:
"Can a man be said to enter a house when only one-half of his body is in and the other half out?"
To which the Judge replied: "I shall leave the whole matter to the jury; they must judge of the law and the facts proved."
The jury returned a verdict of "guilty" as to one-half of the body, from the waist up, and "not guilty" as to the other half. The Judge sentenced the guilty half to two year's imprisonment, leaving it optional with the prisoner to have the "not guilty" half cut off or taken along with him.

ROYAL COMPLIMENTS TO COLONEL MOSBY.—Major John Scott, of Fauquier, now in Europe, has just written, informing his friends here that the Prussian War Minister, Count Bismarck, has ordered a government translation of his late work, "Partisan Life with Mosby," for the purpose of adopting in the Prussian service the system developed by Colonel Mosby during the late war, regarding it as entirely original and effective. Also that the Russian War Minister and his royal highness, Crown Prince of Russia, have written him letters in high commendation of Colonel Mosby's newly developed system of warfare.—Warrenton Sentinel.

A STRANGER passing the League House on Broad street observed a number of melancholy looking individuals entering it.
"What hospital is that?" inquired the stranger of a bystander.
"Hospital! that's not a hospital; that's the great Union League House. Why do you ask such a question?"
"Because," replied the stranger, as he passed on, "there are so many sick-looking men going into it."—Philadelphia Herald.

AN OLD FARMER.

Some waggish students of Yale College, a few years since, were regaling themselves one evening at the "Tontine," when an old farmer from the country entered the room, taking it for the barroom, and inquired if he could obtain lodging there. The young chaps immediately answered in the affirmative, inviting him to take a glass of punch. The old fellow, who was a shrewd Yankee, saw at once that he was to be made the butt of their jests, but quietly taking off his hat, and telling a worthless little dog he had with him to lie under the chair, he took a glass of the proferred beverage. The students anxiously inquired after the health of old man's wife and children, and the former, with affected simplicity, gave them the whole pedigree, with numerous anecdotes about his farm, stock, &c.
"Do you belong to the church?" asked one of the wags.
"Yes, the Lord he praised, and so did my father before me."
"Well, I suppose you will not tell a lie?" replied the student.
"Not for the world," added the farmer.
"Now, what will you take for that dog," pointing to the farmer's cur, who was not worth his weight in Jersey mud.
"I would not take twenty dollars for that dog."
"Twenty dollars? Why, he is not worth twenty cents."
"Well, I assure you, I would not take twenty dollars for

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 8, 1867.

DAYLIGHT!

THE PEOPLE STILL SPEAKING!

Glorious Democratic Victory in New York!

New Jersey in Line Again!

Maryland All Over Democratic!

Radicalism in the West on the Wane!

October brought us the political DAWN—November brings DAYLIGHT! White men everywhere announce the doctrine that "this is a white man's government, established by white men for white men and their posterity forever."

On Tuesday last, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Kansas voted.

NEW YORK is carried by the Democrats by 35,000 to 40,000 majority, with a majority of the Legislature. In New York city the Democratic majority is 61,500!

NEW JERSEY is redeemed. The Democratic majority now is over 6,000. Last year the Republicans had 2,800. The Legislature is Democratic on joint ballot by 31!

MARYLAND.—Every county Democratic, and Bowie's majority for Governor will reach 35,000. Baltimore city gives Bowie 15,051 majority; Frederick county 400; Carroll 350; Washington 250—and all the county officers elected are Democrats.

MASSACHUSETTS elects the Radical Governor, but by only 15,000 or 20,000 majority. Democratic gain 35,000 to 40,000! Prohibition is defeated.

MICHIGAN—Radical, but by a reduced majority. Negro suffrage amendment in doubt.

ILLINOIS elected only county officers. Radical majorities reduced.

WISCONSIN.—Democratic gain of several thousand on the popular vote, and 6 or 8 members of Assembly and 3 or 4 Senators.

MINNESOTA.—Greatly reduced Radical majority, and negro suffrage amendment defeated.

KANSAS.—Negro and female suffrage defeated.

Thus is the white North, State after State, repudiating Radical negroism. There is daylight for the nation.

SHARSWOOD'S MAJORITY 927.

HARRISBURG, November 5.—According to law, the Secretary of State opened the election returns to-day in the Hall of the House of Representatives, and Governor Geary issued his proclamation declaring Judge Sharswood elected. The official count was as follows:

For George Sharswood	267,751
For Henry W. Williams.....	266,824
Majority for Sharswood.....	927
Total vote of the State.....	531,575

THE IMPEACHMENT QUESTION.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes that the majority report of the House judiciary committee will be against the impeachment of the President. A minority report, favoring impeachment, signed by Messrs. Boutwell, Thomas, Lawrence and Williams, will be rendered. In short, the committee stands now as it did before the recess. Both reports will be ready to be submitted on the 21st instant, the first day of the session.

THE unparalleled and unprincipled blackguard, Brownlow, has been elected United States Senator from Tennessee. He will be a fitting associate for the Radicals who already occupy seats in that body, and will be an especial object of admiration for the negroes who crowd the galleries. Another farce of an election will now be held for Governor, in case Brownlow does not intend to run both offices together, which is quite probable.

THE Chase men sneer at the attempts made by certain Republican journals to bring out Gen. Grant as the Republican candidate for President. The Columbus (Ohio) Journal says:

"Why must we always go casting about for 'available' material, instead of fearlessly taking our representative men for office? Can we hope for a complete and enduring success—do we deserve to succeed—if we abandon principles for men?"

THE N. Y. Tribune of a late date, closed an editorial paragraph in this language: "If our party and its nominal antagonist shall stand substantially on the same platforms in the next Presidential struggle, we foresee that the result will be much like the Scott canvass in 1852, and are quite resigned to the dispensation." In plainer words, if the Radical party does not come out flat-footed for negro suffrage, and take up an out-spoken representative of that doctrine, the Tribune is perfectly willing to see it defeated.

WENDELL PHILLIPS is very much exorcised over the recent elections. He has issued through the columns of the Anti-Slavery Standard, a manifesto to his Republican followers, in which he denounces the people of Ohio as "selfish," and says Pennsylvania is "always in the market." "What shall we do?" exclaims this madman, and he answers himself by laying down a programme for the Jacobins, the principal features of which are thus expressed: "Impeach the traitor of the White House." "Hang out the banner of impartial suffrage." "Throttle the President." "Teach men to forget Ohio and Pennsylvania in the blaze of a fiercer onset." Such is the banquet to which the Radical leaders invite the people!

A UNIVERSAL suffrage bill has been prepared for presentation at an early day after the meeting of Congress. It proposes to confer on all negroes the right to vote for President and Vice President and for members of Congress. What the prospects are for its immediate passage we cannot say, but a few weeks will put the Radicals to the test.

THE Radical majority in West Virginia has been largely reduced. One fire more and the State will be ours.

HIGH-HANDED MEASURES.

Since the election in Virginia, it appears that Vigilance Committees have been formed in Richmond among the blacks, who are giving notice to certain of the whites that they must leave that city within forty-eight hours. How long can white men be expected to tolerate such outrages? With what extrodinary patience is it thought that Southern men are endowed, to allow the perpetration of such grievous wrongs? If such excesses are indulged in—if the ignorant negroes are to be permitted to gratify their brutish passions, there must come one of the most terrible and destructive conflicts that have ever brought sorrow to any land. A gigantic struggle will be inaugurated which must inevitably result in the utter extermination of the blacks. Our own proud race will never submit to humiliation, insult, and the exercise of tyrannical power at the hands of these inferior creatures. Its innate dignity and superiority will assert themselves and demand that the State governments be administered by white men. Eighteen negroes have been elected to sit in the Convention which is to frame a Constitution for Virginia. Well may the descendants of Virginia's illustrious statesmen of the past, blush as they contemplate the degraded condition to which the old Dominion has been reduced.—And yet, remarks a cotemporary, there are men in the North who regard this as progress—who chuckle over the tidings of negroes elevated to office, whilst they try to gull their conservative party friends, by holding up their hands in holy horror at the charge that they are in favor of negro suffrage. We cannot understand this strange infatuation. We cannot account for this unqualified surrender and wholesale concession of the hitherto exclusive rights of the whites to the illiterate and semi-barbarous African. There is a divinity shaping our ends and making this extreme fanaticism a mill-stone to drag Radicalism down to complete destruction. Ultraism is recoiling upon and stinging itself to death. The danger is, however, that it will be the source of unnumbered woes to the country. Let all patriots so act as that it may soon run its course, and give way to a healthy Conservatism which will bring back our land into the old channels of national peace and prosperity.

WHO ARE GUILTY?

"Occasional," in his letter of November 2, after stating that no "clamor will change the purpose of the majorities in Congress on the great subject of a restoration," continues—"the atrocities of the rebels upon the colored people, since the elections, would alone render any change impossible, even if higher motive did not demand perseverance." What atrocities have been committed by white men upon negroes since the recent elections? The list of outrages and atrocities are altogther on the other side. Negroes have constituted themselves into vigilance committees, and warned white men to leave the South on pain of death.—Negroes have mobbed white men in the streets, and shot them down in their fields and dwellings. Negroes have attacked the stores and workshops of white men because they dared to vote the anti-negro ticket at the recent elections in the South. Negroes are now boasting that they will make such constitutions as will put white men under their feet. All these things have been done by negroes, and yet "Occasional" talks of the atrocities committed upon negroes by white men. This is the old game of misrepresentation. But it will not win now as it did when passion and prejudice swayed the minds of men and blinded them to reason, truth and justice. If a war of races is precipitated upon the South, it will be by the action of the negroes, excited and stimulated by such men as Hunnicutt and the writer of the "Occassional" letters in the Press. The white men of the South are disposed to protect the negroes in all their civil rights, but they will not be butchered by infuriated blacks in order to satisfy the malice and hatred of Radical leaders, North and South.—Age.

PRIVATE Miles O'Reilly, editor of the New York Citizen, suggests that Mrs. Lincoln take up each present she received while in the White House, state from whom it was received, and label it with a memorandum of the probable profits in place, or of some shoddy contract, or permit to buy cotton, which the presenter must have made. Miles thinks in this manner it would be found that the value of Mrs. Lincoln's influence to the gentleman who presented her with a carriage and a pair of horses—certainly not costing over two thousand dollars, all told—must have been in the vicinity of at least four hundred thousand dollars; and very likely a similar exhibit might show that every shawl, and dress, and article of jewelry in her collection, must have been paid for (finally by the country) at the most extravagant rate."

A LETTER written from Mississippi to the N. Y. Post (Radical), and republished by the N. Y. Tribune (Radical), says that the negro majority in that State will exceed twenty thousand; that it will be cast "solid for the Republican party," and that "five men will rule Mississippi," by controlling this negro vote. It adds that "these men are not our best men." Let us, after this confession, hear no more of a "slaveholders' oligarchy." What worse form of oligarchy could there be than a voting force of sixty thousand negroes (twenty thousand in majority) controlled by five men, and they not of the best? Can the South be "reconstructed" properly under such a despicable oligarchy? Can the country be reclaimed from impending bankruptcy and ruin through representatives sent to Congress by such a vote controlled by such men?

THE negro military companies in Washington City have been disbanded, by order of the President—Gen. Grant, contrary to Radical hopes, carrying it out. It is reported that these daugerous organizations are to be disbanded throughout the South also. It is high time, if the murder of the whites is to be prevented.

HON. CHARLES REMELIN, in a speech recently delivered at Columbus, Ohio, went into a mathematical demonstration of the fact that the people actually pay, in the way of certain internal revenues, annually the sum of nine hundred and forty-three millions, five hundred and three thousand, nine hundred and eighty-three dollars, only three hundred and ninety-six millions of which ever reaches the treasury of the United States, the balance of over five hundred and forty-seven and a half millions is either consumed in profits, in the cost of collection, or stolen by officials. A pleasant fact for the consideration of working men!

A LADY who has a great horror of tobacco got into the New Haven cars, the other day, and inquired of a male neighbor: "Do you chew tobacco, sir?" "No ma'am, I don't," was the reply, "but I can get you a chew if you want one."

RADICALISM PLOTTING MISCHIEF.

The Radicals are alarmed at the prospect of losing the Pennsylvania Senate at the next election, and they have already commenced the work of preparing the public mind for an outrage which they have in contemplation, and which we noticed last week, in order to maintain their majority in that body. When they made their infamous "gerrymander" of the State three years ago, they formed a "double" Senatorial district out of Centre, Juniata, Mifflin, Blair, Huntingdon and Perry counties. They made a "double" district, not because two districts could not conveniently have been made out of the counties they formed into one, but because they wanted to swamp certain Democratic counties and secure two Senators for themselves where they were entitled to only one. We believe Col. McClure, who is not particularly distinguished for scrupulousness in politics, warned his party friends that they were making a dangerous experiment, and that their two-edged sword might turn and cut themselves; but the warning was disregarded.

Sooner, perhaps, than Col. McClure himself apprehended, the turn has taken place and the cut been given. The Democracy has wrested this double district from the Republicans, and by this one great achievement made a difference of four in the count of political noses in the Senate. With the certainty that the Franklin and Adams district, and that of Luzerne, will be carried against them next year, the Radicals feel that something desperate must be done to save them in the Senate. The following from the Pittsburg Commercial foreshadows the violent measures they will adopt to maintain their ascendancy:

The defeat of Messrs. McVitty and Robinson, Republican candidates for State Senators in the Twenty-first district, has caused an investigation to be made as to the manner of its accomplishment, and has resulted in developing frauds of a glaring character in Juniata, Perry and Centre counties. Sufficient evidence has been obtained, it is said, to give Messrs. McVitty and Robinson their seats, without reference to the large number of deserters that voted in Juniata and Centre counties. The election of Shugart and McIntyre will therefore be contested, with, it is claimed, a certainty of success.

We entertain very little doubt that the election of Shugart and McIntyre will be contested with "a certainty of success," if the Democracy of Pennsylvania do not give the scoundrels who contemplate this outrage upon the ballot box, to understand that the back window of the Senate chamber at Harrisburg, out of which Thad Stevens jumped in 1838, is still open, and that some of his disciples may be called upon to imitate that famous feat of his if they undertake to imitate his attempt to defeat the will of the people. Do these plotters suppose that the party which has so signally triumphed at the polls, will permit the fruits of their great victory to be wrested from them by the Radical Senate of Pennsylvania? Will McConaughy, who sits in that Senate in defiance of the verdict of the people lawfully rendered in his case, dare to assist in rejecting Shugart and McIntyre, and yet hope to escape taking the leap which Thaddeus Stevens took thirty years ago?

The Radical Legislature which passed the infamous apportionment bill, under which members of both branches of the General Assembly are now chosen, went far enough. They studied how to make districts which it would be impossible for the Democracy ever to carry. If now, finding themselves mistaken, they undertake to use their ill-gotten power to maintain their waning ascendancy in either branch, and refuse to admit members who have been legally elected, the time will have come again for the Democracy of the State to assemble at the Capitol, as they did in 1838, prepared and determined to maintain their rights. —Valley Spirit.

THE DEAD PARTY.

A correspondent of the Patriot & Union furnishes the following dialogue, which he says he overheard, a few days ago, in the neighborhood of the Hill, between a Democrat and a prominent Radical:

Radical—"How are you, Mr. D——? You Democrats have rather worsted us this year."

Democrat—"Yes, rather so. Don't you think we have done pretty well for a dead party?"

Radical—"Dead, the devil. I told our smart men some time since, that if they were depending on success on the ground that the Democratic party was dead, they would find themselves mistaken."

Democrat—"Then you don't think we are dead?"

Radical—"Dead! If the party is dead, it fights the best battle of any corpse I ever heard of, and I don't like to acknowledge that our party has been whipped all over the country by a corpse."

Democrat—"You are mistaken. You beat us in Louisiana and Virginia."

Radical—"Yes, the niggers beat the white men down there; but I don't like that any better than you do, and if this is the way things are going, there will be d——d few white people in the Republican party in another year; it will be a manhood corpse. But I won't be there."

THEIR OBJECT.—The Mongrels of Philadelphia have commenced proceedings to contest the election of the Democrats who were elected on the 8th inst. This is their ostensible purpose; but every one knows that their real object is to commit perjuries enough to defeat the wishes of the people, as expressed at the late elections. They had better be careful how they tempt the triumphant Democracy, or they may get the punishment which they have so long and so well deserved, sooner than was intended. If frauds have been committed anywhere, the Radical party alone have been guilty, for they have maintained power in this State for years only by the most shameful frauds. Judge Sharswood has been fairly elected, and the Democracy will install him if it requires another buckshot war to do it.—Genius of Liberty.

WE understand a purse has been made up by the Loyal League of Philadelphia, to contest the election of several of the county officers in that city, recently elected by the Democratic party. With the unscrupulous Bill Mann as District Attorney, and all the officials at his back, there is no telling the extent of the conspiracy. The main effort will be to swear away nine hundred and twenty-two votes so as to defeat Judge Sharswood. Perhaps these gentlemen imagine they can, as formerly attempted, treat elections as if they had not been held, but they will be fearfully mistaken. We indulge in no threats. we make none, but merely intimate, they had better not try it on.—Erie Observer.

WHAT is left of this country is to be managed by the Democrats. As they built the country up originally from 3,000,000 to 35,000,000 in population, so they can restore it from its present low grade to prosperity and wealth.

IT is now asserted by Thurlow Weed, a Radical leader, that before Lincoln was buried his other half had sold eleven of his twelve shirts! She learned her propriety, manners and politics from the Black Republican all-decency party!

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

Teachers' Institute.—The next meeting of the Adams County Teachers' Institute will be held at New Oxford, the last week of this month—commencing on Monday, the 25th, and continuing until Friday, the 29th—five days. An unusually attractive programme has been arranged by Superintendent Sheely, and we predict one of the most interesting and profitable meetings the Institute has yet had. See advertisement.

Agricultural Hall.—The new Hall on the Fair Ground has been leased for two levees by Gen. Tom Thumb and party, on Wednesday, the 27th instant. The Hall is to be lathed and plastered, and gas fixtures and heating apparatus introduced, by that date. The mechanics are now at work, and they feel certain of getting through with the job in time. The Hall is forty by eighty feet, and will prove one of the features of the town.

New Commissioner.—Mr. Jacob Lott was sworn in as a member of the Board of County Commissioners, on the 1st. Abraham Krise's term then expired. The Board organized with Samuel Wolf, the senior member, as Chairman. J. M. Walter was re-appointed Clerk, and E. B. Buehler, Esq., Attorney. Mr. Krise made an attentive and faithful officer, and we are sure that Mr. Lott will also. The Board now consists of Messrs. Samuel Wolf, Nicholas Wierman and Jacob Lott.

New Director.—Mr. Martin Getz qualified and entered upon his duties as Director of the Poor on Monday last. Col. Graft, whose term then expired, made a very acceptable Director, and the same may safely be expected of his successor. The Board now consists of Messrs. John Nunnemaker, John Rahn and Martin Getz.

New Railroad Arrangement.—A new Railroad arrangement—and a good one—is announced. We are hereafter to have two daily trains for passengers exclusively—leaving at 8.15 A. M. and 1.30 P. M., and returning at 12.40 and 5.30 P. M.

A train for freight exclusively has been put on—leaving Hanover Junction at 7.30 A. M., arriving at Gettysburg at 11 A. M., and leaving at 2.30 P. M. Shippers can thus make three trips a week.

These arrangements will result in great convenience to the public, and will be generally applauded by it.

Improvements.—In addition to town improvements recently noticed, we have the following to mention:

E. B. Buehler, Esq., is having his residence, on Baltimore street, raised to two stories and an attic, and a pressed-brick front put in. It will, we doubt not, be a decided improvement to the street.

Wm. Koppus is having a two-story brick residence erected, on Stratton street, beyond the Railroad.

Lottville—Seven Stars—New Salem.—There is probably more improvement to be noticed along the Chambersburg turnpike, from Gettysburg to Cashtown, (eight miles,) than in any other part of the county. At the present rate of progress, it will not require many years to line both sides of the road, the entire distance, with attractive buildings.

New Salem has sprung up almost in a day, and is among the handsomest of villages. And still the work goes on. A commodious store building has just been completed for Jacob F. Lower, whilst two-story brick dwellings, for Abraham Mickley and Wm. Stover, are receiving the finishing touches. Samuel Eichelts has considerably improved his hotel property. A number of new houses are talked of to go up in the spring. Jeremiah Biesecker is erecting a house and barn a short distance this side.

Seven Stars, (P. O.,) four miles from Gettysburg, is fast assuming village proportions. Last summer Capt. James Mickley had erected a two-story brick residence, and he is now having all the necessary out-buildings added. Elias Hartman has just had completed a two-story brick residence, whilst Wm. Settle has added a two-story brick back-building, and repaired and re-painted his entire dwelling. Wm. Russell is progress a commodious frame dwelling.

Lottville, three miles from Gettysburg, near Marsh creek, is also looming up. Wm. Walter has had his handsome dwelling finished—Charles B. Polley is erecting a two-story brick, and Noah F. Lott will soon have up a comfortable frame dwelling.

These improvements are all marked, and we trust the "good work" will continue a long while.

Littlestown Improvements.—In addition to the improvements in Littlestown heretofore noticed, we have now to mention a large two-story brick building, 24 by 50 feet, for coach shop, by Sell, Blocher & Co.; three houses by Andrew Jones and Augustus Crouse, and Misses Julia and Margaret Howard. The Catholic congregation have about completed a school house near their church.

Fine Edifice.—Our Catholic friends in the neighborhood of Irishtown have just erected a fine edifice, on a beautiful and commanding location, immediately north of the town, for church and school purposes. The building is tasteful in design and substantial in construction.

New Oxford Band.—The Brass Band at New Oxford has been fully organized. New instruments, costing $440, have been secured. With Prof. Gundrum as teacher, and first-rate material in the Band, it will soon prove a thorough success. It is composed of the following members: Francis Sherman, David Melhorn, John Dietrick, Fabe Wagner, W. B. Stidler, Geo. Sherman, Wm. Bastress, Charles Ruff, Alfred Sherman, George Kohler, Luther Kohler, Allen Weikert and Amos Weikert.

Bank Dividends.—The Gettysburg National Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of five per cent., and the First National one of four and a half per cent. The Hanover Saving Fund declares ten per cent. for the last six months.

Church Organization.—A congregation was organized in St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran Church, in Littlestown, on Wednesday, the 31st of October last—that day being the 350th anniversary of the Reformation.

Preaching.—The Rev. S. W. Pomeroy will preach in the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church, on Sabbath next, the 10th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Present.—Our old Marsh creek friend, Jacob Hereter, has again placed us under obligations for the present of several large sweet pumpkins of the best kind. He has our thanks.

The Indian Doctor will be in Gettysburg, at the Eagle Hotel, from Tuesday, the 12th, until Friday, the 15th of November, instant, where he can be consulted at all hours of the day.

Property Sales.—Samuel Herbst has purchased from Rev. Dr. Schmucker, a half lot of ground on Chambersburg street, near the Diamond, at $1,000. It is Mr. Herbst's intention to build a residence for his own use on the lot next spring, and we doubt not it will be a fine one.

Hon. J. B. Danner has sold a house and half lot, on East Middle street, to Alfred Slonaker, at $625.

Peter Beitler has sold his house and half lot, on York street, to Henry Büchter, at $1,300.

The following sales are reported from Littlestown:—Wm. H. Hufford has sold his house and lot to Abraham Long, for $1,100,—Levi Crebs has sold his tavern stand to Wm. H. Hufford, for $2,700.—Josiah Harner has sold his house and half lot to John Mehring, for $1,000.—John Cover has sold his house and half lot to Josiah Harner, for $1,000.—Mrs. Bishop (widow of Jacob) has sold her house and lot to Mr. Baumgardner, for $900.—Frederick Rife has sold three building lots to James Lilly, for $500.—Ephraim Myers, Esq., has sold a building lot to Amos Sheely, for $355.—George Smith has sold his house and half lot to Hamilton Winterode, for $600.

Attempt at Highway Robbery.—We have been informed by reliable authority, that Dr. Melhorn, of New Chester, Adams county, was attacked by some highway robber, one night last week, in the neighborhood of Hampton, in that county. The villain came out of a fence-corner where he had secreted himself, grasped at the bridle and horse, but fortunately, the horse became frightened and ran about a quarter of a mile at full speed, and left the robber behind. The Doctor was riding in a carriage.—Hanover Citizen.

A Cowardly Act.—We have been told by a gentleman present on the occasion, and who made a narrow escape himself of being hit, that Mr. Joseph Wolf was hit and severely bruised by a stone thrown among the Democratic procession at Abbottstown on Thursday night last, by some dastardly Republican coward. Mr. W. was struck above the left eye and struck down by the force of the stone. Had he been hit a few inches further down, the left eye would have been knocked out. No serious injury is likely to result, save a nasty cut and much pain. It is a pity that the scoundrel was not apprehended at the time and punished A few years ago, the Democrats had to bear and grin, but that time is gone, and the sooner these vagabonds are made known of this fact, the better.—Ib.

Severely Burned.—We are sorry to be compelled to record another accident by the dress of a woman catching fire. Mrs. Sarah Bucher, wife of Mr. Samuel Bucher, of Straban township, Adams county, burned herself very severely on Monday week. She was engaged at her work near the stove, when her dress took fire from the stove hearth, and literally burned her clothing from her person. In her attempt to quench the flames, the carpets and bedding were resorted to by her, setting both in flames. Had it not been for her husband, who, hearing her screams, came to her rescue, herself, a small child, and the building would have been consumed. Although severely burned, she is doing as well as could be expected.—Ib.

Murder Trial at York.—Wm. Donovan, charged with the murder of the Squibb family, in York county, in June, 1866, has again been found guilty of murder in the first degree. A similar verdict was rendered on a previous trial, but a new trial was granted him. The last occupied more than two weeks, and much interest was felt in it throughout. The case was given to the jury on Monday evening, and after an absence of five hours, a verdict of murder in the first degree was rendered. Judge Fisher presided. Messrs. Bittenger, Fisher and McElroy conducted the prosecution, and Messrs. Maish, Ziegler and Wickes defended the prisoner. The trial is said to have been the longest ever had in that county.

Railroad Accident.—Yesterday week, Mr. Francis Overbaugh, residing near Littlestown, met with a serious accident, whilst walking on the track of the Littlestown Railroad, about two miles from Hanover. Mr. O. being permanently deaf, and the train rounding a curve, he could not hear a signal, nor did the engineer see him until too late to stop. The unfortunate man was consequently struck and thrown from the track by the engine, and his left leg so mangled as to require amputation. The operation was performed by Dr. Seiss, assisted by Drs. Mehring, Krumrine and Simpson. The patient is doing well.

Election.—The following persons have been elected officers of the Gettysburg and Petersburg Turnpike Company, for the ensuing year:—President—William D. Himes. Managers—William McSherry, Jacob Wirt, George Swope, Joseph Baily, Marcus Samson, John H. McClellan. Treasurer—John H. McClellan. The Company has made a dividend of one per cent.

He is a practical Tobacconist, and is agent for the sale of the best brands of Tobacco. All persons in that branch of business, will find it of advantage to test his prices, the quality of his goods, and the opportunities he offers for dealing on good terms. Give him a call. 1t

Handsome Engravings.—E. H. Minnigh has become Agent for the Washington Library Company, and has shown us the eight beautiful Engravings referred to in the advertisement. He will be glad to show these pictures to all desiring to see them. 1t

Wire Clothes Line.—A valuable article—advertised by Luther McDonnell in to-day's COMPILER. Read the advertisement.

P. Bentz, of York, will be in Gettysburg on MONDAY NEXT, for the purpose of receiving orders for instruments, and for tuning and repairing instruments.

The Oriental is a stove which requires feeding but once a day, which radiates a gentle and delightful heat without burning the impurities in the air, which will keep fire for one or more days without any attention, is a complete ventilator of the room, is simple and easily managed, which does not clinker or clog, and is economical in the use of coal, and with al a powerful heater, and in point of style and beauty has never been excelled.

The Orientals are cheaper, and guaranteed to give more heat, than the corresponding numbers of any other swing-top stoves in the market.

S. G. Cook is the only agent for the Oriental in Gettysburg. tf

There is no doubt but what Coe's Dyspepsia Cure excels all remedies ever discovered for the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Pain after Eating, Cramps, Colic, and distress in either Stomach or Bowels. The people all speak in the most flattering terms of its merits.

Peruvian Syrup,—This valuable medicine has been silently making its way into public favor by the numerous remarkable cures it has performed. Its singular efficacy is owing to the protoxide of Iron, which remains unchanged in this preparation and is the only form in which this vital element of healthy blood can be supplied.

Resumed Practice.—As will be seen by his card in another column, Dr. C. W. Benson has resumed the practice of medicine at Littlestown. The Dr. stands deservedly high in the profession, and his numerous friends will be glad to have his services again.

Railroad Dividend.—The Hanover B. Railroad Company has declared an annual dividend of five per cent., payable November 11th.

THE TAX-GATHERER AND THE BAYONET.

It has often been predicted in these columns that the inevitable result of the Abolition policy toward the South would be to destroy its capacity to pay taxes, and that the slender revenue the government secured would be, as in Ireland, at the point of the bayonet. Such is already the case. General Pope, commissioned tyrant of the Georgia "District," has, as we learn from a proclamation of his, "ordered the military to assist the civil authorities in collecting taxes in Alabama and Florida." The people there have been so oppressed, so grossly injured by Abolition interference with their labor system, so robbed by the idle negroes and mercenary emissaries, that they find it utterly impossible to procure money to pay taxes. The civil officers, consisting generally of mean white men who had secured offices from satraps for betraying their fellow-citizens, cannot collect taxes by the ordinary process, and they fall back upon the military tyrants for support. As in Ireland the tax-gatherer appears at the cabin door of the poverty-stricken tenant, with the bayonet of the alien soldier, to enforce the confiscation of the last pig, the last meal of potatoes, the last piece of furniture, for the profligate aristocracy—so it is in the Helot States of this Union, under Abolition rule, and so in time it must be in all the States, unless there is a radical reform in the manner of conducting the government, and a reduction in its taxes and the extent of its financial swindles. The people of this country cannot continue to pay the enormous and unjust burdens imposed upon them by the Jacobins, and which are increased, rather than diminished, by every act of that party. Then it will appear that the government will need all its military power to maintain itself by forcing the tithes from the tenants of the farms mortgaged to speculators and capitalists of the war; and the glory of the soldier will be forgotten in the shame that must attach to a flag which has ceased to be a standard of protection, and become the emblem of a mercenary despotism.—Columbus (O.) Crisis.

THE OHIO ELECTION.

It is a very remarkable fact, revealed by the Ohio election, that wherever the Jacobin party put forth its greatest efforts, and brought forward its biggest and loudest guns in the oratory line, there Democratic gains were largest.—The aggregate value of the Jacobin orators imported to Ohio amounted to many thousand votes to the Democratic party. Their relative value differed considerably. It may be interesting to the Democracy to know that John A. Logan, in the Ohio campaign, did the Democracy more service than he ever did while a member of the party, or than he ever would had he lived in it to the age of Methuselah.

The relative value to the Democrats of some of the principal imported Jacobin orators in Ohio is shown as follows: In four counties, where Zach. Chandler spoke, the Democratic gain was 1,113. In three counties, where Julian, of Indiana, spoke, the Democratic gain was 1,343. The Democratic value of Schuyler Colfax, in five counties, was 2,355. The Democratic value of Shelby M. Cullom, of Illinois, in four counties, was 1,956. The Democratic value of John A. Logan, in five counties, was 4,506.—Some portion, however, of Logan's value to the Democracy in those counties ought to be credited to Colfax, and a little of it to Cullom, both of whom assisted him in giving the Democracy a gain of 2,253 in Hamilton county.

But the most valuable Jacobin to the Democracy in Ohio was a loyal blatherskite of the name of McKee, from Kentucky. This fellow worked harder than Logan, made more speeches, and "tore 'round" after a more desperately loyal fashion. In eight counties his value to the Democracy was upwards of 5,000 votes, and he seems to have achieved all this by his own unaided efforts in the cause of Jacobinism.

Toward such valuable servitors, the Democracy cannot do less than indicate its high satisfaction.—Chicago Times.

THE German population of all the cities and large towns are turning their backs upon the Republican party in a mass, and their prominent organs are taking position in the ranks of the Democratic party. The following extract will show how the tide is running. The Anzeiger des Westens, the Radical German organ in St. Louis, has the following, illustrative of the present relations of the Germans towards the Republican party:

The Union has been fully restored, as far as by main force it could be accomplished. Slavery has been abolished forever. Under these circumstances the question arises, are there any further principles or interests at stake to bind the Germans to the Republican or Radical party? It is our conviction that there is no further identity between the tendencies of the present Radical party and the principles and interests of the German adopted citizens; that their connection is unnatural and injurious; and the slavery question having been disposed of, it will be the best policy on the part of the German adopted citizens to return to the Democratic party; to a Democratic party which has been purified by the events and changes of the past year, and which, recognizing and accepting the results of that period, is steadily progressing and developing itself.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 3, 1867.

A Man in a Trance is Supposed to be Dead, and is Deposited in a Vault—He Bursts His Coffin, Escapes, and is Shot at as a Pretended Ghost.

We have before us a private letter, detailing events that recently occurred in a Southwestern Ohio town, that gives peculiar force to the old adage, that "truth is stranger than fiction." We can give the main particulars of the letter without violating confidence or giving disagreeable prominence to the chief actor in the strange incident or his friends.

Mr. Delos W. is a wealthy and influential man, residing near the village of P. On the Thursday preceding the prize fight between Gallagher and Davis, the old gentleman was thrown into a high state of excitement at learning that his only son John had gone to Cleveland with the avowed purpose of attending the fight, and the excitement was intensified at still further discovering that John had helped himself to his (the father's) pocket-book, containing $200. Mr. W. fumed and fretted over the conduct of his son, and went to bed on Thursday night with a raging headache and marked symptoms of fever. He was about the place in a more composed state of mind on Friday, but the interview with John, on Monday afternoon, immediately after the son's return, threw the old gentleman into a paroxysm of rage and grief, which was rendered doubly severe by John's insolence, and his acknowledgment that he had lost $150 of the money in a bet on Gallagher. Mr. W.'s frenzied feelings finally got the better of him, and he felled his son to the floor with a blow of his fist, and immediately thereafter fell down himself, in a senseless condition. Great excitement in the family ensued. The mother ran screaming for assistance, which was soon forthcoming in the persons of several of the neighbors. Mr. W. was found in an apparently lifeless condition, with blood flowing from his mouth and nose. A subsequent examination by a physician led to the announcement, by him, that Mr. W. had died from the bursting of a blood vessel. So evidently had the vital spark fled that no efforts at resuscitation were made; and the remains were prepared for burial as promptly as possible.

The funeral of the "deceased" took place the following Wednesday. Mr. W.'s body had only been coffined the previous day—up to which time it had lain draped in its shroud, in the parlor. Notwithstanding the wonderful life look of the skin, and the color in the face, it occurred to no one to suggest a postponement of the burial till death was absolutely certain. The funeral was very largely attended, and everybody remarked the lifelike appearance of the deceased.

The "remains" were temporarily placed in one of the vaults of the cemetery, owing to the fact that a brick tomb, commenced for their reception, had not been completed.

At ten o'clock on Thursday night, the village was thrown into great excitement by the report that a ghost had been seen in the cemetery a short time before, and that the old lady who had first seen it had been frightened into a fit, from which it was doubtful whether she would recover. Thinking that probably the ghost was personated by some scoundrel, who had played the same trick several times before, a number of persons armed themselves with shot-guns, proceeded to the cemetery, and commenced a cautious inspection—their hearts keeping up an anxious thumping in their bosoms, in spite of their assumed bravado. They had not long to wait, for there, flitting among the tombs, was a white object, plainly to be seen. With trembling hands the guns were raised, and fired, when—strange fact for a ghost—they saw the white creature fall between a couple of graves. Plucking up courage, they cautiously approached the object, and turned a dark lantern upon it. Their feelings can be better imagined than described, when they found that the ghost was the lately "deceased" Mr. Delos W! Whilst a portion of the party picked up the bleeding and senseless body of the old gentleman, and started homeward with it, the remainder hastened to the vault. There they found Mr. W.'s coffin broken open and lying upon the floor, and the coffin of a deceased lady that had been placed upon it, likewise thrown down from the shelf, and standing on end, partially broken open, displaying its ghastly inmate. The vault door, which was a rather weak affair, had been forced open by the resurrected W.

The party then went to Mr. W.'s house, where they found that his wounds were not serious, and that he had recovered his senses. His story was briefly told: He had been carried to the cemetery in a trance. Early on Thursday evening consciousness returned to him, and the horrid truth flashed upon his mind that he was coffined alive. This lent additional strength to his struggles to get free, and he finally succeeded in bursting the coffin.—Cleveland Plaindealer.

THE TRIAL OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.—The Washington Express of Wednesday evening says:

It is understood that District Attorney Chandler has had several informal conferences with the Attorney General in reference to the trial of Jefferson Davis, but, so far as we can learn, nothing definite was determined. The general impression is that the authorities here will leave the whole matter to the law officers for the district of Virginia, where it belongs.

A Washington correspondent of the New York Herald alleges that the trial of Mr. Davis has been postponed until the May term of the Richmond court, at the request of the counsel for the government, in order that Chief Justice Chase may preside, and also to take measures of framing a new indictment.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 6, 1867.

GARDENING VS. FARMING.

We hold that no one will attempt to cultivate a vegetable garden without deep cultivation and pulverization of the soil, and thoroughly enriching the ground by the use of manure in some form.—Everybody at once concedes this to be necessary, and his practice is in accordance. Now, in what respect does a farm differ from a garden, except in the number of acres cultivated? A corn or wheat field is, or ought to be, but a garden on a large scale, for the cultivation of corn and wheat; yet how few farmers there are, who bestow a tithe of the labor or manure on the cornfield, they acknowledge to be indispensable to the vegetable garden, to make it productive and profitable. Now, if it is necessary for the production of good vegetable crops, it must be patent to every one that there is the same existing necessity, in order to secure the production of good crops of corn and wheat. All are organized plants, and require the same treatment in regard to the enrichment of the ground in which they grow, as well as in their cultivation by manual labor.—The object in view by every farmer and gardener, is to convert the elements derived from the soil and earth into substances available to sustain life, and add to our enjoyments. To do this, we must furnish such materials as can be metamorposed into vegetables and grains, or disappointment is our lot. We have no right to expect that nature will convert pure sand and clay into cabbages, turnips, corn or wheat. Every intelligent man knows that something more is required in addition to sand and clay. Manure of some sort is indispensable, which is but the debris or remains of vegetables, which have once lived and died, or performed the office of food to animals.

All manures—even those derived from animals—are of vegetable origin. The minerals required by plants are usually found in sufficient quantity in most soils, and are rarely required to be furnished artificially. With these views, we hold it to be folly to expect a crop, so long as we furnish nothing but the seed out of which to make it. There should be no farmers in the common acceptation of the term. All should be gardeners in respect to thorough manuring and cultivation, and all farms should be gardens, whether they contain one acre or fifty acres.

Dr. Parker, of Columbia, S. C., a few years ago, made two hundred and twelve bushels of corn on one acre of ground, by judicious manuring and cultivation.—What he did, can be done again under like conditions, and by any one; yet we will aver that his neighbors, with land as good by nature as his, did not make more than twenty bushels per acre, by the usual manure and method of cultivation, thus making it necessary for them to work ten acres to get a crop equal to his from one acre. Let us hereafter follow gardening. If we can make and work a garden of fifty acres, well; if only ten acres, do no more; if only five, be sure and have it a garden as regards the fertility of the soil and cultivation.

With these views, we say cultivate small farms, enrich your lands, diversify your crops, and labor diligently yourselves, and if you do not become wealthy, you can have at least an abundance about you to render life a blessing.—Southern Cultivator.

TREATMENT OF GALLED BACK.

George H. Dadd, veterinary surgeon, gives, in the Prairie Farmer, the following:

So soon as an abrasion is discovered on the back of a horse, the animal should be excused from duty a few days; the abraded parts should be dressed twice daily with a portion of tincture of aloes and myrrh. This simple treatment will soon heal the parts. Should there be no abrasion, but simple swelling, attended with heat, pain and tenderness, the parts should be frequently sponged with cold water. Occasionally the skin undergoes the process of hardening, (irritation.) This is a condition of the parts known to the farriers of old as "stiffast," and the treatment is as follows: Procure one ounce of iodine, and smear the indurated spot with a portion of the same, twice daily.

Some cases of galled back and shoulders are due to negligence and abuse, yet many animals, owing to a peculiarity of constitution, will "chafe," as the saying is, in those parts which come in contact with the collar and saddle, and neither human foresight nor mechanical means can prevent the same.

TO KEEP SWEET POTATOES TILL THE FOLLOWING JULY.—Have the potatoes well cleaned when dug. Put them into a pine box; first put in a layer of dry pine shavings or sawdust, then a layer of potatoes, taking care not to let them touch each other, then a layer of shavings, and so on till the box is full. I put up potatoes in this way every year, and never fail to have them on the 4th of the next July. They ought not to be kept in a cellar, nor any damp place. I have mine in my shop, where the ice froze half an inch thick, this winter, and they are safe yet. A. W. DOUGLASS.

Ft. Madison, Iowa.

FOR FROSTED FEET.—Cut the kidney lard of a hog in small pieces, put it over the fire, take care not to burn it, have it as hot as you can, strain it into a hole made in ice the shape of a teacup; stir fast with a stick while pouring in, in order to get all the ice into the lard you can. A few applications will take out all frost. It is infallible. A. W. D.

BRINKERHOFF'S
Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner.

THE undersigned would inform the Agricultural public that he has purchased from the Patentee of this extraordinary machine, the Patent Right for the States of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Brinkerhoff's Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner, is pronounced the best machine of the kind in this country. And in proof, it may be mentioned that the "Advisory Committee appointed to select Implements for exhibition at the Universal Exposition in Paris, in 1867, have selected this Sheller as the best in America," and at the request of J. C. Derby, U. S. Agent, a machine has been shipped to Paris for exhibition.

The fact may also be stated that at the great trial of Agricultural Implements, at Auburn, N. Y., in July last, under the auspices of the New York State Agricultural Society, the Brinkerhoff Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner was tested by one of the most competent Committees as the best Corn Sheller out. They say, "We have carefully examined and thoroughly tested this machine, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best Corn Sheller we ever saw." The report is signed by such men as John Stanton Gould, President N. Y. State Agricultural Society; B. P. Johnson, Secretary to same; Nelson Robinson, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Tribune; S. Edwards Todd, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Times.

From among many complimentary newspaper notices, the following, from the New York Observer, is deemed sufficient:

"Among all the Hand Corn Shellers made in New York and Albany—and one single firm manufactures more than 10,000 annually—not one can enter the circle with the Sheller just invented by J. Brinkerhoff, Auburn, New York. It shells, separates and cleans, rapidly and easily, at one operation, as fast as the ears can be put into the hopper."

The undersigned is now prepared to dispose of COUNTY RIGHTS. He will have MACHINES ready for sale in the course of a month's time.

KISSINGER & SHRIVER,

NO. 2 WEST MARKET STREET, YORK, PA.,

AGENTS AND DEALERS IN
PIANOS & CABINET ORGANS, MELODEONS,
AND ALL KINDS OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS,

respectfully inform the public that they are prepared to furnish Pianos of the following manufacture or of any other make that may be preferred:

Alberight, Retkes & Schmidt,
Chickering & Son, Bradbury,
Knabe & Gens, Gale & Son,

AND ALL KINDS OF

ESTEY'S CELEBRATED
COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR
ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by any thing found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severest scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (as acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.
